

“Oral Cancer 2023: Lumps, Bumps and Lesions for all Seasons”

Detroit District Dental Society

November 3, 2023

John A. Svirsky, DDS, MEd

Virginia Commonwealth University

804-405-2668

FAX: 804-828-6234

EMAIL: jasvirsk@vcu.edu

1. Tobacco advertising
2. Leukoplakia
3. Proliferative verrucous leukoplakia
4. Histology
5. Erythroplakia

6. Materia alba, cotton roll burn and aspirin burn

7. Linea alba

8. Leukoedema

9. Cheek, lip and tongue chewing

10. Nicotine stomatitis

11. Most common cancers

12. Oral submucous fibrosis

16. Tobacco pouch keratosis

17. Vaping

18. Screening devices

19. Actinic Cheilitis

20. Squamous cell carcinoma

21. Risk factors

22. Human papilloma virus

23. Oropharyngeal carcinoma

24. Basal Cell carcinoma

25. Melanoma

26. Immunosuppression

27. Oncogenes and tumor suppressor genes

28. Oral cancer management

29. Oropharyngeal management